
Resources Just for You

The San Diego Center for Economic Education (SDCEE) maintains a wide array of materials to assist K-12+ instructors in teaching about economics. From books and booklets, to leaflets and pamphlets, the SDCEE resource library covers information on the Federal Reserve, finance, money, entrepreneurship, trade and much, much more!

All materials are available at no-cost through the San Diego County Inter-Library Loan program.

Note: Some of the booklets, leaflets, and pamphlets are also available in their entirety on the Internet. (To identify those titles available on the Internet, look for the words, "Online Resource" or "URL" in the catalog record.)

Request Our Resources for Use in Your Classroom

It's easy! Just go to your branch public library and make an interlibrary loan request of the San Diego Center for Economic Education (SDCEE) materials.

- Obtain a San Diego County Library (SDCL) card or already be a cardholder.
- Contact your local branch library and ask them to place an interlibrary loan request for you.
- Fill out the patron request form (branch staff will assist with this) with your information and the information of the materials being requested.
- Branch staff will notify you when your materials have arrived.
